FINALE

Texas State University Bobcat Marching Band
Dr. Caroline Beatty, Director

Dr. Caroline Beatty

Caroline Beatty has recently been appointed Director of Bands at Texas State University-San Marcos. In the 2011-2012 academic year, her responsibilities include conducting the Wind Symphony, directing the Bobcat Athletic Bands, teaching conducting, and overseeing all aspects of the Department of Bands. Dr. Beatty also enjoys an eclectic performance and teaching schedule outside of the university. The diversity of these engagements has included conducting professional freelance ensembles, conducting student honor ensembles, serving as a recording conductor, serving as a conducting workshop clinician, and providing a workshop lecture on music in American history for middle school and high school history teachers.

Dr. Beatty previously held the position of Associate Director of Bands at Texas State and has held a similar position at Northwestern State University. Her public school teaching experience includes thirteen years as a high school band director. While in that position, ensembles under her direction garnered frequent accolades for their performances, including consistent superior ratings and top awards at various festivals in the state and around the country as well as selection as a Texas Music Educators Association 5A Honor Band finalist.

Dr. Beatty holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Conducting from the University of Michigan and holds both a Master of Music degree in Instrumental Conducting and a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from The University of Texas at Austin. She is a member of College Band Directors National Association, Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, and the Conductor's Guild and is listed multiple times through student nominations in Who's Who Among America's Teachers.
