

District Advisory Bodies: Responsible to the Superintendent

Advisory Body/ Contact Person	Brief Description of Charge or Purpose	Membership <sup>1</sup>	Term	Meetings and Reports
Boundary Advisory Committee (BAC) <sup>2</sup> Joe Silva	To assist in developing recommendations for the creation of, and adjustment to, school attendance zone boundaries. Following is a link to the BAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/2004bond/boundaries/index.phtml	20 parents and community members	Three years; may serve multiple terms	Meetings and reports are determined by the BAC co-chairs in consultation with the Chief Operations Officer
Budget and Finance Advisory Committee (BFAC) <sup>3</sup> Nicole Conley-Abram	To provide guidance and counsel on matters of budget and finance as may be determined by the district administration. Following is a link to the BFAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/initiatives/budgetreview/	12 parents; 4 staff; 2 business partners; 1 governmental partner	Two years; may serve multiple terms	Meetings and reports are determined by the BFAC co-chairs in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer
Capital Improvement Advisory Committee (CIAC) <sup>4</sup>	To identify and evaluate all capital improvement needs of the district, and provide recommendations to address the most compelling needs. <sup>4</sup>	20 parents, community members, subject matter experts, and district staff	The CIAC is an ad hoc advisory body, and members serve for the duration of the group's work	Meetings and reports are determined by the CIAC co-chairs in consultation with the Chief Operations Officer
District Advisory Council (DAC) Joey Crumley	Required by state law to provide the district with advice and counsel on a wide range of issues, and to provide input into development of the District Improvement Plan. Following is a link to the DAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/dac/	24 parents; 24 teachers; 6 principals; 1 business partner; 2 community members; 2 students; 3 at-large members; 2 ACPTA members; 2 central staff	Two years; may serve multiple terms	Third Tuesdays of the month (except for July and December); an annual report is provided for public information by June 30
English Language Learners Citizens Advisory Committee (ELLCAC) Celia Glick	To develop the understanding and knowledge of district administrators and educators, parents, and the Board of Trustees regarding the needs of ELLs, and to provide advice and influence the design and implementation of ELL programs and services. Following is a link to the ELLCAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/ellcac/	9 parents (2 of special education students); 4 central staff; 4 campus staff; 1 business partner; 2 community members	Two years; may serve multiple terms	Meetings and reports are determined by the ELLCAC co-chairs in consultation with the Executive Director of Special Programs
Special Education Citizens Advisory Committee (SECAC) Janna Lilly	To educate, advise, and influence district administration, parents, and the Board of Trustees through the knowledge and understanding of students with special needs. Following is a link to the SECAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/secac/	7 parents; 2 teachers; 2 principals; 1 classified staff; 1 community member; 1 business partner	Two years; may serve multiple terms	First Thursdays of the month (except July and December); an annual report is provided to the Superintendent by June 30

Advisory Body/ Contact Person	Brief Description of Charge or Purpose	Membership <sup>1</sup>	Term	Meetings and Reports
Strategic Compensation Steering Committee (SCSC) David Lussier	To advise the district in developing and implementing a strategic compensation initiative to support and reward teachers and principals based on success. Following is a link to the SCSC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/initiatives/compensation/partners.phtml	Teachers, principals, administrators, and business partners (numbers not specified)	Two years; may serve multiple terms	Meetings and reports are determined by the Executive Director of Educator Quality in consultation with the SCSC
Calendar Task Force Gloria Williams, Paul Shooter	To develop calendar drafts for the district school year, for consideration by the DAC, Campus Advisory Councils (CACs), and district administration, with final approval by the Board. Following is a link to the Calendar Task Force website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/initiatives/calendar_planning/	Parents, teachers, principals, and administrators (numbers not specified)	The Calendar Task Force is an ad hoc advisory body, and members serve for the duration of the group's work	Meetings and schedule for draft calendars determined by the co-chairs

<sup>1</sup>Complete membership rosters are available on the website links provided; members are selected by the advisory bodies themselves and/or senior staff, based on applications received, referrals, and knowledge of the community.

<sup>2</sup>Formerly the Facility Use and Boundary Task Force (FUBTF). Responsibility has been transferred from the Board to the Superintendent.

<sup>3</sup>Formerly the Citizens Budget Review Committee (CBRC). Responsibility has been transferred from the Board to the Superintendent.

<sup>4</sup>The CIAC is a newly formed ad hoc advisory body, and has not yet met. A charter has been developed, and a website for the CIAC will be developed.