

District Advisory Bodies: Responsible to the Board

Advisory Body/ Contact Person	Brief Description of Charge or Purpose	Membership¹	Term	Meetings and Reports
Community Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC) Pat Rossett	To provide a valuable public perspective in ensuring that specified bond programs and projects remain faithful to the intent and scope of work approved by voters. Following is a link to the CBOC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/2004bond/cboc/index.phtml	Each Trustee appoints three members	Coincides with term of appointing Trustee; may serve multiple terms	Unless otherwise directed by the Board, meetings are on fourth Tuesdays of the month (except July), and periodic progress reports to the Board will be determined by the CBOC co-chairs in consultation with the Chief Operations Officer
Performing Arts Center Task Force (PACTF) Pat Rossett	The PACTF serves to fulfill voter expectations associated with approval of the May 10, 2008 bond proposition that authorizes expenditures by the district to construct a student performing arts center. Following is a link to the PACTF website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/2004bond/performingarts/index.phtml	Each Trustee appoints one member, and the Superintendent appoints three members	The PACTF is an ad hoc advisory body, and members serve for the duration of the group's work	Unless otherwise directed by the Board, meetings are held as needed, and reports are determined by the PACTF co-chairs in consultation with the Chief Operations Officer
School Health Advisory Council (SHAC) Tracy Lunoff	Required by state law to provide the district with advice and counsel on issues related to student and staff health and well-being. Following is a link to the SHAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/schools/shac/	15-35 members, majority are parents, and includes staff, students, community members; members selected by SHAC Executive Committee, and annually approved by Board; Trustees also invited to make appointments	Two years; may serve multiple terms	First Wednesdays of the month (except for July); an annual report is presented to the Board by September 1
Citizens Bond Advisory Committee (CBAC) ² Pat Rossett	To assess and prioritize needs identified by the district in developing a bond program scope of work that minimizes tax impacts, yet is comprehensive enough to equitably safeguard taxpayer investments. Following is a link to the CBAC website for additional information: http://archive.austinisd.org/inside/2004bond/cboc/index.phtml	Each Trustee appoints two members ²	The CBAC is an ad hoc advisory body, and members serve for the duration of the group's work	Meetings and reports to be determined ²

¹Complete membership rosters are available on the website links provided

²The CBAC is not currently active; at such time when this ad hoc advisory body may be reactivated, a charter will be developed

